"Our epitome attests the completeness of this Atlas in giving the promised information; and it is not less accurate; we have not, in our survey, detected a single error."—Morning Post.

"Considering the intrinsic value of the Work, the price is extremely moderate, and must place it within the reach of hundreds of students whose funds may not be equal to their desires. The Maps are finely engraved and coloured, with the names of places distinctly lettered. To the student of ancient history the Historical Maps, which are full of interesting details as to boundaries and battles, will afford much assistance. The work does credit alike to the enterprise of the Publishers and the skill of the constructor and engraver."—Glasgow Herald.
